The Medicalization of Grief
Articles on Grief vs. Depression and Changes in the DSM 5: How they affect the bereaved.

Medicalizing grief
http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012/03/relativity-applies-to-physics-not.html

MISS Foundation on the changes in the DSM 5 http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012_10_01_archive.html

Grief vs Depression
http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012/04/96-800x600-normal-0-false-false-false.html

Bereavement is not a disorder
http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012/03/bereavement-and-snorting-seaweed.html

Bereavement and MDD - major depressive disorder http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012/05/dsm5-mdd-and-reliability.html

Bereavement is not a disorder
http://drjoanne.blogspot.com/2012/10/revolution-on-standby.html

Changes in the DSM 5 Questioning changes in the DSM 5 by professionals http://www.madinamerica.com/2012/03/1984-dsm5-revisited-where-are-the-social-workers/

The bereavement exclusion

Grief as a natural process http://www.thejustice.org/news/prof-speaks-on-grief-as-an-illness-1.2758187#.T3DjV1EiZSU

Grief vs depression

The demographics of depression in grief Questionable diagnoses in the DSM 5

Medicalizing grief
http://www.forbes.com/sites/alicegwalton/2012/02/21/how-medicalizing-grief-turns-into-dollars/

New depression guidelines
http://commonhealth.wbur.org/2012/03/warning-depression-guidelines